The Memorial Plaque was issued after the First World War to the next-of-kin of all British and Empire service personnel who were killed as a result of the war. The plaques about 4.75 inches in diameter, were cast in bronze, and came to be known as the "Dead Man ' s Penny", because of the similarity in appearance to the much smaller penny coin which itself had a diameter of only 1.215 inches. 1,355,000 plaques were issued, which used a total of 450 tons of bronze, and continued to be issued ...

Memorial Plaque (medallion) -- Wikipedia

The Next of Kin Memorial Plaque is a bronze plaque approximately 11 cms or 4½ inches diameter with the name of someone who died serving with the British and Empire forces in the First World War. This was issued to the Next of Kin of the casualty along with the scroll. They were posted out separately, typically in 1919 and 1920, and a ' King ' s message ' was enclosed with both, containing a facsimile signature of the King.
